We would appreciate if you answer these questions in your own words.

1. Children at this age are always doing things that make us happy. Please state one such memorable incident that truly touched your heart.

2. Appreciating children for what they do builds their positive image. What do you say/do to show your appreciation to him/her?

3. Children love to be kept busy, what are the three things that you and your child enjoy most doing together?

4. Children are still learning right from wrong. If you see that your child is making a mistake, how do help your child to do the right thing?
